CALLS FOR THE PRESIDENT

Gen. Baum and Major McKinley spoke, after which the president and Secretary Lincoln rose to leave, but the crowd called loudly for a speech from the president, who finally came to the front and said he did not come to the meeting to speak but simply to listen to the story of the [illegible] campaign which culminated in the capture of Vicksburg from the lips of those who took part in it. The Union, he said, would honor them and their memory forever. He was glad to be present to express to them not only as chief magistrate of the country they had saved but as an individual, the gratitude of the country.

Secretary Lincoln was loudly called upon to speak but did not come forward.

The presiding officer then read letters and telegrams of regret from Gen. Sherman and others.

NOTES FROM WASHINGTON CITY.

[CORRESPONDENCE OF THE OREGONIAN.]

WASHINGTON, April 1.

Both the house and senate committees on railroads support the bill to incorporate the Spokane Falls and Coeur d'Alene Railway Company. The report of the house committee, which is adopted by the senate committee, says: "The purpose of the bill is to incorporate the Spokane Falls and Coeur d'Alene Railway Company, a road proposed to be built from Spokane Falls, in Washington territory, to the Coeur d'Alene mining region in the territory of Idaho, a section of country now wholly without railroad or other transportation facilities.

As there is no territorial law in Idaho under which a railroad company can be incorporated, and as there can be no session of the legislature until 188[illegible], at which a general incorporation law can be passed, the incorporators of the proposed road are compelled to apply to congress for a charter.

The company ask no aid or help from the United States. They simply ask the privilege of building the railroad at their own risk under the sanction of law, so that when built they can be protected in their rights."

The incorporators under this bill are J. J. Br[illegible], A. M. Cannon, A. J. Davis, D. F. Wend[illegible], H. B[illegible], [illegible] W. H. Armstrong, and they desire permission to construct a railroad from Spokane Falls through by way of Fort C[illegible] by the most direct and feasible route, to an intersection with the Northern Pacific or Utah Northern railroad in western Montana, together with branch lines from suitable points on the main line in Idaho territory up each of the following rivers: Coeur d'Alene, St. Mary's and St. Joe [illegible] near the sources of the same; and also a railroad and telegraph line from Spokane Falls to a point at or near Moscow, in Idaho, and said company is also empowered to construct and maintain a [illegible] on the Spokane, St. Joe, St. Mary and Coeur d'Alene rivers, lines of steamers and other water craft.

The capital of the company is placed at $2,500,000, and the company is required to locate the road within two years and to complete the same within [illegible] years.

Senator Dolph has reported favorably from the committee on commerce a bill authorizing the Bellingham Bay Railroad and Navigation Company to build certain bridges, wharves and docks in Washington. It provides that the corporation named be authorized to construct and maintain bridges and approaches thereto over the Nooksack river, in the county of Whatcom, the Skagit river in the county of Skagit, and the Stillaquamish and Snohomish rivers, in the county of Snohomish, at the points where the company's lines of railways as now projected cross said rivers respectively. It also gives them the right to cross either Lake Union or Salmon bay, or the waters between, or the canal built or to be built between said Lake Union and the bay, said works to contain a draw of such width as will accommodate the commerce passing through said waters, and to be built upon plans approved by the secretary of war.

The house committee on Indian affairs support the bill for the relief of citizens of Oregon, Washington and Idaho who served in or with the United States troops in the war with the Nez Perce [illegible] in 1877 and in the Bannock and Piute wars, and for the relief of the heirs of such as were killed in such service. It provides that each person who joined or assisted the forces of the United States in the state of Oregon or the territories of Washington or Idaho, during the war with the Nez Perce Indians in 1877, or in the war with the Bannock Indians in 1878, shall be paid $1 a day during the term of such service and for actual time necessarily employed in going from and returning to his home, and including all time spent in hospital under treatment by such as received wounds or other injuries in such service. All persons who were wounded or disabled in any such service, and the heirs of all who were killed in such service, shall be entitled to all the benefits of the pension laws in the same manner as if they had been duly mustered into the regular or volunteer forces of the United States. All horses and arms lost in any such service shall be paid for at their actual value.

The bill is supported by a report which impresses upon congress the necessity and justice of its passage.

The committee on Indian affairs will have under consideration the bill prepared by Representative George to provide for the payment of all claims for Indian depredations heretofore audited and allowed by the secretary of the interior and such claimants shall be paid the amounts thus allowed.

The committee on public lands have a bill to adjust the claims of owners of land within the limits of the Klamath Indian reservation. In 1867 congress granted certain lands to the state of Oregon to aid in the construction of a military wagon road from Eugene City, by way of Middle fork of Willamette river, and the most feasible pass in the Cascade range of mountains near Diamond peak to the eastern boundary of the state. The legislature assembly designated the Oregon Central Military Wagon Road Company as the company to receive the grant and construct the road and as is well known the road was constructed and completed for its entire length in 1866. The lands were listed to the state and by it deeded to the company and thereafter without notice to the state, the Indian office set apart 130,377 acres of the same land so granted as a reservation for the Klamath Indians, who now occupy the same to the exclusion of the company. The bill therefore authorizes the secretary of the interior to issue scrip for quantities of land not less than one section to the legal owners of the land granted to the state in 1864, authorizing them to select and locate of the unoccupied and unappropriated public lands of the United States a quantity of land equal in amount to the lands within the limits of the grant embraced in the Klamath reservation.

CHICAGO, April 11.—The Chicago and Liverpool boards have adjourned over Good Friday.

CRIMINAL CALENDAR.

A MONTANA SHERIFF ARRESTED

BRAINERD, MINN., April 11.—The western bound passenger train on the Northern Pacific was boarded here this evening by Sheriff Wertz and posse, who took therefrom Sheriff Bill Smith of [illegible] Montana and two [illegible] who had in custody the noted desperado Steve Lavin, whom they were taking to Montana to be tried on several indictments. Lavin after a year's chase had been captured in New Mexico. When the three reached [illegible] [illegible] papers [illegible] was served on them, which they refused to obey, and jumping on the west-bound train they declared their intention of fighting. There was [illegible] They are now in jail, where they await the arrival of St. Paul officers.

THE CHELSEA NATIONAL BANK

MONTPELIER, April 11.—The bank examiner has completed the examination of the collapsed national bank. He finds a deficit of $14,000 which is supposed to represent the amount of cashier Hubbard's defalcation. Enough good assets have been found to pay the depositors 60 per cent. If the full [illegible] [illegible] days the bank will be allowed to resume business. The absconding cashier has not yet been found. His household goods were seized to-day on an attachment.

ARRESTED AT KEY WEST

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Information has been received here of the arrest by the United States authorities at Key West of a Cuban named Arrelio Magail, who arrived at that port yesterday. The arrest was based on a telegram from the governor general of Cuba to the Spanish consul at Key West saying that Magail was coming to America to kill him.

A RESPECTED CITIZEN ASSASSINATED

LAS VEGAS, N. M., April 11.—Juan B. Patron, a wealthy and highly respected citizen, ex-speaker of the territorial legislature, was assassinated last night by Mitch Maney, a cowboy. Maney will probably be lynched.

TAKING OUT THE BODIES.

Terrible Scenes at the Entrance to the Ill-Fated Pocahontas Mine.

LYNCHBURG, VA., April 11.—After everything was got in readiness at Pocahontas yesterday evening a police force was placed on guard at the main entrance to the mine in order to keep back the crowd which had been attracted by a notice posted that the bodies could soon be claimed. The mining engineer in charge of the rescuing party entered the mine to note the situation of affairs. When they emerged from the mine they announced that the damage was less than had been supposed and that there would be little trouble experienced in recovering the bodies of the victims. The two bodies reclaimed horribly mutilated were those of Bu[illegible] Maxey, a white boy, and Jim Crim, a negro.

Work was resumed in the morning. Still a larger crowd had collected at the entrance and ropes were stretched to prevent too near approach. The crowd, however, observed due decorum and there was no undue excitement. A spirit of great solemnity seemed to pervade the assembly. The bodies as recovered were placed in boxes in the inside of the mine, and several were brought out together on a [illegible]

BODIES RECOVERED

A number of miners well acquainted with the victims were [illegible] at the [illegible] for the purpose of [illegible] [illegible] over [illegible] [illegible] were identified. They are Jim Crim, recognized by a belt he wore; Isam Maxwell, by his [illegible] Maxwell, by [illegible] found with his brother; William Smither, by a watch on one of his [illegible] found by the [illegible] the body. A German was [illegible] by his wife. Many bodies were [illegible] mangled [illegible] heads blown off, others had arms and legs torn from the [illegible] some others had their entrails [illegible] out in [illegible] [illegible] the entrance but nobody to which it belonged was found.

A cry of horror passed through the crowd as the remaining parts [illegible] charred and distorted remains of a miner, with his dinner bucket clasped in his arms, probably just partaking of his midnight meal when the explosion hurled him forward. Several miners were found with picks in their hands and the positions indicated that death was instantaneous to all.

THE WORK POSTPONED

At 7:30 o'clock it was announced that no more bodies would be removed before 9 o'clock Saturday morning. The rest of the day was occupied in getting out the carcasses of mules, which being too heavy to drag out had to be quartered and hauled out.

Very little excitement prevailed. A large crowd of men and women stood near the entrance hoping by some familiar feature to recognize dead relatives, but when the announcement was made that no more bodies would be taken out until Saturday the crowd withdrew.

THE CUBAN CRISIS

Great Dissatisfaction Expressed at Havana—A Gloomy Outlook.

NEW YORK, April 11.—A letter from Havana, dated April 5, says: Serious accounts from the interior as to the movements of large parties of bandits and government troops continue to come in. Yesterday a battalion of regular troops was sent from Havana to Vuelta Arriba, and for a few days the coast in the neighborhood of Havana will be occupied by detachments of troops. The government is apparently waking up to the situation. Private accounts from San Domingo say Cuban refugees there are in possession of large amounts of money and are preparing for a landing in Cuba, in combination with parties here. This will probably cause extraordinary movements of troops. The government, in spite of all these facts, pretends to ridicule all reports of a threatened invasion.

ANOTHER BURDEN

News has reached this city that the minister of colonies has made a new loan of $3,000,000 from the Hispano Colonial bank of Barcelona for account of the Cuban treasury. The Cuban treasury will pay 1 per cent commission on the loan, and interest at 9½ per cent per annum. This measure has caused the greatest indignation here and added to the state of profound alarm and general discontent prevailing, as the loan and contract made with the same bank in 1880 is considered one of the calamities which brought about the present state of affairs. The bank is already receiving $33,000 daily from the treasury of Cuban custom houses and the present loan adds $15,000 daily. A perfect panic is reigning in the markets. Merchants, in order to sell their drafts, have to submit to a large loss on current rates.

RAILROAD NOTES

A FRUITLESS MEETING

DENVER, April 11.—At the meeting of the Colorado pool held here to-day all the roads were represented. Early in the meeting the Union Pacific people introduced a resolution that rates be restored to the tariff figures, which was lost, as was also a resolution by representatives of the Burlington and Missouri, having for its [illegible] the dissolution of the pool. The meeting was a stormy one and to-night adjourned subject to the call of the chairman without having accomplished anything.

POLITICAL

A LIVELY CONTEST AT CHICAGO

CHICAGO, April 11.—Republican primaries were held in this city this afternoon to elect delegates to nominate congressmen in the First, Second and Fourth districts and to elect delegates in all of the four districts to the district convention. The issue in all of the four districts was clearly defined as between the adherents and the opponents of Blaine and Logan for the presidential nomination and the choice of delegates to the district convention. The balloting was characterized by an unusual amount of turbulence, the struggle in the Third congressional district was particularly exciting, and many personal encounters and several fist fights resulted, but as the only weapons used were fists no serious results followed. The result [illegible] a divided victory. The First district chose eighty delegates to the congressional convention, forty of whom are for Logan and forty against. A fight is still [illegible] when the convention meets to-morrow to choose delegates to the national convention. In the Second district the Logan and anti-Logan managers agreed to disagree and elected two sets of primaries and will send two sets of delegates to the national convention. In the Third district anti-Logan delegates were elected, and in the Fourth those in favor of Logan.

BLAINE DELEGATES ELECTED.

HARRISBURG, April 11.—The republican convention in the Fourteenth congressional district to-day elected delegates to Chicago favorable to Blaine [illegible]

PHILADELPHIA, April 11.—The republican convention in the Twentieth congressional district to-day elected delegates to the national convention and instructed them for Blaine and Lincoln as long as they remained in the field. The Twenty-sixth district convention also selected delegates with instructions to support Blaine.

ANTI-ADMINISTRATION DELEGATES

COOPERSTOWN, N. Y., April 11.—The Twenty-fourth congressional district republican convention, composed of delegates from Schoharie, Herkimer and Otsego counties, elected Titus Sheard of Herkimer and Hobart Krum of Schoharie delegates to the national convention. Dave S. Wilber of [illegible] was appointed presidential elector. The delegates are anti-Arthur, with preferences divided between Blaine and Lincoln.

THE MISSOURI REPUBLICAN DELEGATES

ST. LOUIS, April 11.—A correspondent of the Globe-Democrat gives the following summary of the [illegible] preference of delegates from this state to the republican national convention: Blaine 17, Arthur [illegible], Logan 7, Edmunds 5. None of the [illegible] strongly pronounced in their preferences [illegible] and will [illegible] be governed largely by the views of delegates from republican states.

UNINSTRUCTED DELEGATES

VANDALIA, ILL., April 11.—The republican convention nominated [illegible] Hamilton for congress and elected John [illegible] and [illegible] M. Truitt delegates to the Chicago convention. No instructions.

GOVERNORS HOADLY AND JACKSON

Their Views on the Issues in the Presidential Campaign Freely Expressed.

NEW YORK, April 11.—The Herald of Saturday will publish replies from Governor Hoadly of Ohio and Governor Jackson of West Virginia to an inquiry concerning the issues for the next presidential campaign. Governor Hoadly says: The issues upon which the presidential campaign is to be conducted are [illegible] reform of abuses engendered by continued republican misgovernment for twenty years and for a [illegible] of the constitution of the United States. Absolutely free trade is at present an impossibility. Any tariff necessarily affords some incidental protection to domestic manufactures. Tariff for revenue only for public uses means a tariff [illegible] on articles which are not produced in the United States, such as tea and coffee. I am for a tariff for revenue so arranged [illegible] as to encourage [illegible] as far as possible [illegible] constructed an intelligent [illegible] in our oppressed [illegible] and restore the American flag to the seas [illegible] invested capital. This is the Ohio platform on which he was carried [illegible] last fall, and with it we [illegible] as the candidate we can carry it again this year.

GOVERNOR JACKSON'S VIEWS

I am not in favor of making the tariff issue in the [illegible] campaign. I believe the issue should be [illegible] by the recent [illegible] brought about [illegible] change at Washington. I [illegible] a modification of the existing tariff, but I am opposed to the passage of the Morrison bill of the house. I am in favor of the Ohio platform—tariff for revenue, with incidental protection—as the wisest policy to insure democracy [illegible] victory. I believe that a large majority of the democrats of this state are in accord with the above views.

A VOICE FROM SOUTHERN OREGON

ROSEBURG, April 10.

The time is approaching for the selection of a nominee for congress to succeed Hon. M. C. George. It is therefore time for some thought and agitation of the wants and desires of the various sections of the state. Southern Oregon, for the first time in the history of this state, now comes to the front and asks at the hands of the republicans the honor of naming the candidate. During our existence as a state we have never so much as asked the republicans to give us a nomination, but now that our rivers, our harbors, our bays and our general internal improvements and the prominence into which this section is being placed demand some special attention at the hands of our representatives it is but just to us, and consistent with the past record of republicans that we should have a representative from our section selected. We are no longer an extinct fabric that composes the state of Oregon. We have developed but a section of such magnitude as to deserve more than a mere passing notice. Portland has now a representative in congress—Hon. J. N. Dolph—who is perhaps one of the most active and energetic members of the senate. No stone will be left unturned to benefit the great interests that center in Portland. He is able in intellect, zealous in his efforts, and we believe impartial in his judgment. Eastern Oregon can expect no more active and zealous advocate than Hon. J. H. Slater or [illegible] Hearst in Oregon, almost fully alive to her interests, determined not [illegible] in the matter of laboring for our state [illegible] doing much for us both, but his interests lie largely in another section of the state. Neither Dolph, Slater nor George can feel that interest in the improvements including and [illegible] that they feel for the Columbia river. We have no censure to [illegible] against them. [illegible] but we are heartily tired of a passive interest in our internal improvements and now ask an active work.

The Curry County Post of recent date contains the following, which is expressive of our views and the feeling of the people of this section [illegible]:

We are glad to note the fact that the republican press of southern Oregon are [illegible] a united effort to secure the nomination of a southern Oregon man for congress. Southern Oregon has never had a republican congressman, not even a candidate. Southern Oregon embraces one half of the state and we should surely be of sufficient importance to ask that the representative come from among us. Portland has never been without a representative and for several years past has had both. Eastern Oregon has had a senator for six years. Southern Oregon has had neither. How long shall we wait? Our wants are many and of great importance. We have a [illegible] [illegible] we may say from Yaquina bay taking in [illegible] Umpqua, Coos bay, Coquille river, Port Orford, Rogue river and Chetco. Light houses, [illegible] and harbor requirements which our [illegible] more liberal attention from the general government than heretofore. With a representative from southern Oregon, his more immediate attention can be given to our wants than from the fact that he knows them, while at the same time representing all other parts.

The reason the Columbia and Willamette rivers and Portland always receive such liberal appropriations is largely due to the fact that the representatives and senators reside there, and are familiar with their needs.

It is important that the people of southern Oregon unite upon this question, and for once make an effort in their own behalf. Although the Portland papers have already named their man and are confident of success yet if the republicans of southern Oregon make a united demand we think Portland will for once do us the justice to give us the congressman.

If, however, we do not go into convention loudly asking it, Portland will again name the nominee. All other counties in southern Oregon seem to be unanimous on this point. Let the republicans of Curry appoint delegates who will stand up for the right of their portion of the state in this matter.

We, therefore, desire to nominate a candidate, Hon. Binger Hermann, who is honest too honest for a successful politician, who stands second to none in the state as an attorney, who, by his own labor has brought himself into an extensive law practice, who has a competency of this world's goods, who has more than average experience, who has had extensive legislative ability, and who by his winning ways and pleasant address is well calculated to step into and fill the position occupied by Hon. M. C. George with credit to the state and honor to himself. Will the great republican party grant us this request? We hope it will.

THE DEMOCRATS.

Result of the County Conventions Held Yesterday.

THE DELEGATES TO THE STATE CONVENTION

A Communication Endorsing Tilden—Free Trade Resolutions and a Decided Objection to Proxies are the Sentiments of Multnomah County.

The Democrats of Multnomah county assembled in convention at the state circuit court room yesterday for noon at 11 o'clock. The attendance was not large. The convention was called to order by F. J. Jeffery, who stated that the object of the meeting was to nominate fifteen delegates to attend the county convention. Mr. Jeffery was elected temporary chairman and A. F. Sears Jr. secretary.

Fred V. Holman moved that a committee of three be appointed on credentials, which was carried and in accordance therewith Fred V. Holman, J. L. Sperry and Joseph N. Teal were appointed. The committee reported the following named gentlemen entitled to seats:

Mylne precinct—E. F. Nippard, L. B. Thompson, George Whittick, [illegible] Brook, Irwin Hicks, E. F. Sanders by M. P. Minor proxy.

Morrison precinct—R. [illegible] by J. N. Teal proxy, D. Holton, Robert [illegible], F. A. Clark by W. W. Pruitt proxy, Joe N. Teal, T. N. Strong, J. B. Fithian, J. M. Harvey.

South Portland—B. B. Nicholas, [illegible] McCullough, Jas. Wilson, [illegible] Mendenhall, D. W. Taylor, [illegible] Morrill, W. J. Leady.

Willamette, Rooster Rock and Multnomah—No delegates.

Dr. Johnson of Multnomah precinct was empowered to act for it being present. Mr. Carter of Willamette was empowered to act as delegate from that precinct.

The report of the committee on credentials was adopted.

Moved and carried that the temporary organization be the permanent one.

A communication received from Mr. John Fry endorsing Samuel J. Tilden and denouncing the republican party vehemently, was here read and vociferously applauded.

H. I. Nicholas moved as there were important matters of this convention proxies were to be avoided and [illegible] tariff reform to be in order [illegible] that a committee consisting of G. P. [illegible], J. L. Sperry and T. N. Strong be appointed on the [illegible]

A motion [illegible] of Dr. Caples, the oldest democrat in the state, one of the delegates, as a tribute to him, was carried and the motion was unanimously [illegible] A motion to elect twelve other delegates to attend the state convention to be held at The Dalles April 17 was carried. The following persons were then elected delegates: F. V. Holman, V. K. Strode, J. N. Teal, A. F. Sears Jr., W. T. Burney, E. J. Jeffery, [illegible]. The hour of 1:30 P. M. having arrived, and the state circuit court resuming its seat in the room, the convention adjourned to meet for further business at 7:30 P. M.

EVENING SESSION

The convention met in the evening at half past 7 and proceeded at once to its unfinished business.

It was moved and seconded to proceed at once to ballot for delegates.

Dr. Caples made a speech requesting the convention to [illegible] support as [illegible] the [illegible] and suggested that [illegible] be elected [illegible]

W. W. [illegible] moved his [illegible] election be by acclamation.

Here there were loud calls for the previous question. The [illegible] on the motion to proceed to ballot for [illegible] delegates it was carried.

The balloting being by roll call fifty delegates [illegible] votes being necessary to a choice. Messrs. H. C. Meyers, O. [illegible] and B. I. [illegible] were elected. Noltner received the next highest number [illegible]

W. W. [illegible] renewed his motion to elect Mr. Noltner by acclamation. F. N. Strong objected not to the man but to this manner in which it was proposed [illegible]

F. V. Holman moved to amend by proceeding to write [illegible] ballot. The motion carried and balloting was again begun.

Forty-nine ballots were cast of which Mr. Noltner received twenty-eight, the rest being scattered among five candidates. The announcement of Noltner's election was received with applause.

Upon this the election of all delegates was [illegible]

The committee on resolutions then reported the following:

Resolved, That the system of protection now upheld by the republican party is indefensible on any grounds of justice or public policy, that it is simply an indirect tax to support a vast number of official drones at the expense of the industrious public, and should be done away with as rapidly as circumstances will permit. The commercial intercourse of the world should be made as free as possible, and the tariff, upon at least the necessities of life, should be done away with or very much reduced, so as to cheapen to that extent the necessities and comforts of life. Our citizens now have life and liberty; they are also entitled to the free and unrestricted pursuit of happiness and the means of comfort.

Resolved, That all persons elected as delegates to the state convention should if possible attend in person, and that no proxies be given by any such delegates or be considered by such state convention.

Resolved, That the communication of Mr. Fay relating to candidates for the next presidential election raises questions too momentous for the consideration of this convention, and that matter is referred to the coming state convention for appropriate action and discussion.

Upon motion the report of the committee was received and the committee discharged.

After considerable argument upon the subject of the tariff resolution, during the progress of which several delegates exhibited their extreme free trade sentiments, a motion to lay the resolutions upon the table was lost. The first resolution was then adopted without change. The second in regard to proxies was then taken up and discussed. Finally it was amended having been amended so that if [illegible] any one [illegible] is prevented from attending his place may be filled by the remaining delegates.

The third resolution was also adopted after some discussion and the convention adjourned.

THE EAST SIDE

NEW PLEASURE GROUNDS

The Chapman property on Fifth street has been leased for three years by a party who proposes to convert it into first class pleasure grounds. The property is admirably adapted for the purpose. The fence was torn down yesterday and will be replaced by a solid board fence so as to obstruct the view from the street. A number of improvements will be made including booths, dancing pavilion, shooting galleries, etc. The amount of lumber necessary for the improvement is estimated at 15,000 feet, and it is proposed to have all arrangements complete for opening by the commencement of the picnic season.

ALMOST A RUNAWAY

During the temporary absence of Dr. Josephi a three year old son [illegible] untied his buggy, which was standing in front of his residence, and commenced to amuse himself by whipping the horse. The animal not being used to such treatment started off at a lively speed, not being particular as to its course. After narrowly escaping collision with a tree, he ran afoul of a post on the corner, causing a halt in the proceedings, pitching the boy forcibly against the dash board, breaking the harness, and damaging the buggy slightly. Fortunately the boy was more scared than hurt and the affair will teach him a wholesome lesson.

NOTES

The Elizah B. McMillen note of $6000 has been taken up by the city treasurer.

Under instructions of the council Marshal [illegible] is having the interior of the city hall, including the council chamber, repaired and kalsomined—an improvement that it badly needed.

Notwithstanding its being Good Friday there was a good attendance at Hopjack's hall last evening to witness "Ten Nights in a Bar Room," rendered by Fair Lodge I. O. G. T. The performance was very creditable for amateurs and gave general satisfaction.

St. David's Episcopal church, Rev. John W. Sellwood rector—services at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. In the evening there will be a special service for children. Easter carols will be sung, and the pastor will deliver an appropriate address. Sabbath school at 3:45.

The depreciation in the price of lumber (about 30 per cent lower than last season) has given an impetus to building, and buildings are going up in all parts of the city. It is believed that building in East Portland the present year will exceed any previous year by big odds.

EQUAL RIGHTS MEETING IN VANCOUVER

An entertainment was given at Marsh's hall, Vancouver, Thursday evening under auspices of the Clarke County Equal Rights association that for variety of programme and interest manifested is seldom equaled. The organization is designed to encourage and assist women in the exercise of their new privileges and duties as citizens of Washington territory and already numbers over one hundred members, many of whom are active workers. A fine audience assembled at 7:30 o'clock, drawn together by the stirring notes of the Blue Ribbon brass band and the zeal of the officers of the society, and by 8 o'clock there was no longer standing room in the hall. Many prominent persons occupied the platform. The exercises opened by music from the band, after which Miss Ella Whipple, M. D., secretary of the society, read from the constitution the aims and objects of the society. The president, Judge B. F. Dennison, then introduced Mr. S. [illegible] Brown, who spoke briefly upon the rights and privileges of the ballot. Mrs. C. A. Coburn, editor of the Portland Evening Telegram, was next introduced. She discoursed logically and forcibly upon the duties of citizenship for half an hour, her remarks being received with profound attention. Hon. George P. Hoyt of Olympia followed, with pertinent remarks upon the same subject, urging upon women thoughtful consideration of their duties in society and to the commonwealth in their new capacity as citizens. Miss A. R. Lane of Portland rendered several appropriate selections highly pleasing to the audience and creditable to herself. C. B. H. [illegible], United States marshal, delivered a brief and telling speech, during which he recited some of his experience in summoning women for jury service. Pleasing features of the entertainment were songs by R. H. O'Brien, a violin solo by Miss Mary Conner, and music by the Blue Ribbon Band and Quartette club. At a late hour the citizens departed to their homes feeling that the meeting had done grand service in the interests of equal rights and good citizenship.

POLITICAL OPINION.

Louisville Courier-Journal (dem.): The very men who so maligned the Courier-Journal and who made "the old ticket" impossible when it meant something, now that Mr. Tilden is too feeble to stand the strain of age and saving the party, are clamoring for his nomination.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat (Rep.): The story that a secret movement is on foot to bring Grant forward at an opportune moment and make him the republican candidate for president was obviously started by the democratic leaders to quiet the distractions of their party. "When I want to go to bed very quick," observed the little girl, "I say 'rats' and scare myself right to [illegible]"

Brooklyn Eagle (Dem.): Logan's "boom" labors like a ship in a heavy sea. Even at his headquarters in Chicago the division of opinion among republicans as to the advisability of his nomination is so sharp that the arguments pro and con are emphasized by the most vigorous unseemly demonstrations. From the proceedings at the meeting in the fourth ward of this city on Saturday night it is evident that the "boom" calls for an able-bodied protector. The announcement of Mr. John L. Sullivan for the second place on the ticket might help it.

New York Tribune (Rep.): The great issue of the year is the tariff. It will play the determining part in the presidential campaign. Shall the policy of protection under which the country has so greatly prospered be continued, or shall a radically different policy be inaugurated? The republican party is ready with its answer. There is no uncertainty about its position on the tariff. It believes that to abandon the protective policy would be to inflict a serious blow upon American industries; and at its forthcoming national convention this conviction will be expressed with no uncertain sound. Everybody understands this.

FINLAYSON COMMITS SUICIDE.

The Boy Murderer Hangs Himself with a Window Curtain Cord.

ALBANY, April 11.—[Special.]—This evening Deputy Sheriff Smith went to the county jail to give Charles Finlayson his supper and called him but got no response. He then went inside the cell and not finding him there began a search and found him hanging dead inside the water closet. He had taken the cord which supports the weight in the window and unraveling it into three cords tied them together and tying one end to a cross bar which is but a little higher than his head, tied the other around his neck and drawing his feet up remained in that position until he was strangled, the cord cutting deep into his neck. A coroner's jury called by Justice Skipworth is now holding an inquest.

SALEM NOTES

SALEM, April 11.

I. W. Hardner of your city is in Salem on a business trip.

Governor and Mrs. Moody are taking a trip to Jacksonville.

The Cultean, shot by Tom Davis a few days since, is able to walk around once more.

The Adelphian, Hesperian and Athenaeum Literary societies will hold a joint meeting this evening.

Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Deardorff of Jefferson will celebrate their wooden wedding on Tuesday evening next.

C. M. North, secretary for Geo. W. Andrews of the O. & C. R. R., was in the city yesterday, accompanied by his wife.

The printers of Salem will give one of their sociables [illegible] in Marion square as soon as the weather settles.

A. N. Gilbert has so far recovered from his recent severe injuries as to appear upon the street supported by braces.

Two patients were this morning discharged from the insane asylum, one of whom had been an inmate for over six years.

The patients who recently escaped from the asylum in [illegible] have been recaptured and safely lodged in their old quarters.

The home amusement minstrel club of this city are arranging for an entertainment at Reed's opera house to take place on the evening of the 22d instant.

S. B. Foster, formerly commissary at the Oregon state penitentiary, will go to Corvallis on Monday next with a view of securing work on the Oregon Pacific railroad.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Morris paid an official visit to St. Paul's parish Wednesday evening last and administered the holy rite of confirmation upon three candidates. His address upon the occasion was unusually fine and was listened to by a large congregation.

The governor has made the following executive appointments: Henry A. Robinson of New York city, commissioner for Oregon; C. F. Ebinger, W. B. Gilbert and L. [illegible] E. F. Pr[illegible] and A. W. [illegible] of Astoria, Charles F. Hyde of Baker City, notaries public for Oregon.

The democratic county convention met at Reed's opera house at [illegible] A. M. and effected a temporary organization by the election of the following temporary officers: [illegible] White, chairman, and W. M. Kaiser, secretary. The usual committees were appointed, credentials, order of business, etc. and a recess taken [illegible] 1 o'clock P. M.

The Easter services of the Episcopal church in this city on Sunday next promise to be unusually interesting. The church will be handsomely decorated and the music will be appropriate to the joyous occasion. The children's services will take place at [illegible] P. M. The public is cordially invited to attend any or all the services, the seats being free.

The Home Amusement Minstrel troupe of this city have advertised for 500 cats to be delivered on or before the 22d instant. W. F. Cogan, the well known delineator of the comic side of the colored race, [illegible] are to be used as a chorus at their forthcoming entertainment and will be presented to the audience as they pass out in lieu of chromos, furniture or silverware.

The following articles of incorporation have recently been filed in the office of the secretary of state, viz: The Ellensburg Business Association, [illegible] the general mercantile business; incorporators, M. Also the First Presbyterian church of Lebanon; incorporators A. P. Blackburn, J. M. Marks and Thomas G. Wallace; capital stock $1500.

The old students of Dr. F. S. Hoyt, who years and years ago taught in the Willamette university, are arranging to give him an appropriate reception on Wednesday of commencement week, he having accepted an invitation to deliver the Baccalaureate address. With this idea in view, a number of them met a few evenings since at the residence of Mrs. E. [illegible] to perfect preliminary arrangements, and will meet again the first of the coming month to complete the same. Dr. Hoyt taught here from 1850 to 1861, and is at present the editor of the Christian Advocate at Cincinnati, Ohio.

The last of a series of entertainments given during the last winter at the insane asylum for the benefit of the patients took place on Tuesday evening last, quite a number of visitors being present from the city. The following programme was carried out: Music by the orchestra; song, "The Gipsy Countess," by Miss Washburne and Dr. Gelsey; recitation, "The Little Stowaway," by Mrs. Caroline Reeves; "Sports on a Lark," by Dr. Cox and Messrs. Durres and Catterlin; song, Miss Addie Cox; Dutch Delineations, by A. E. Strang; and Musical Sketches, by W. F. Dugan and Roy Wiles. Everything passed off pleasantly and without confusion.

The stockholders in the State Insurance company met in this city yesterday and organized by the election of the following officers: Dr. L. T. Rowland, president; E. B. McElroy, vice president; H. W. Cottle, secretary; F. S. Cottl[illegible], assistant secretary; Major George Williams, treasurer; directors, W. J. Herren, Wm. England, H. W. Cottle, L. L. Rowland, E. B. McElroy, George Williams and F. S. Cottle. The company limit their risks to farm property and private dwellings, and its organization embraces none but representative business men. The company will do business in Oregon, Washington and Idaho, and starts out with flattering prospects.

THE CONGREGATIONAL MUDDLE.

PORTLAND, April 11.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

With your permission I will briefly state a few facts concerning the request for the resignation of E. W. Allen, superintendent of the Sunday school connected with the First Congregational church of this city, as detailed in the preamble and resolutions published in your journal this morning.

In the first place the meeting was not a legal one, it having been called by the acting pastor and no notice thereof was given at the morning service at which there is a large number of members are present than in the evening, when the notice was first read.

Secondly, I would inquire why Mr. Allen has been called upon to resign so soon after a re-election, directly in opposition to his own expressed wish? Has wrong doing in any sense been charged against him? No. The reason is simply this: For more than thirty years this church as a body has adhered to the tenets and genius of Congregationalism and been in hearty sympathy with all churches of this denomination, as well as all other evangelical bodies, not only upon this coast but throughout the United States. About two years ago a gentleman was called among us to act as pastor, who, very soon after his arrival, began to instill into the minds of his hearers the idea that there was no need of articles of faith—or creed, as he was pleased to term such articles—that they were non progressive and illiberal. And in addition to this he frequently repeated in public and private that the church had no articles of faith, although his attention was called to them soon after his arrival among us. Looking to him as the chief source of information regarding church government and doctrine, a large number of persons became so much under his control that at a meeting illegally called a few weeks ago, they, by a majority vote, practically nullified the existing articles of faith and removed all tests of membership. For proof of this statement reference only need to be made to the approved records of the church. For objecting to this summary proceeding—conflicting with known bylaws as well as the organic principles of Congregationalism—Mr. Allen must needs be sacrificed, and a cloud cast upon his Christian character, for the writer has been repeatedly asked during the day what Mr. Allen has done that he should be thus treated. As to that, it must be left with the so-called "majority" to answer.

As to the estimate placed upon Mr. Allen as a Christian gentleman and faithful Sunday school worker reference is made to Dr. J. H. Vincent, H. Clay Trumbull, B. F. Jacobs and others in the east and even to the present acting pastor and many of the so called "majority" up to the beginning of this controversy. What is the result of this action? It is likely to deprive the school of an efficient superintendent, the services of his estimable wife in one of the most important classes in the school, and the valuable services of several other teachers—all to gratify the demands of the acting pastor who, it is believed, has insisted upon the action as this condition of his remaining.

ONE OF THE "MINORITY."

The Grain Question.

The exports of grain from India for 1883 complete were 34,[illegible],940 bushels against 24,[illegible] in 1882, an increase of 9,811,111 bushels, or 40¾ per cent. The artificial prices so long held in this country by combinations of speculators, though broken at last by a severe decline, have injured American producers by enabling India and other producing countries to market their surplus, while our own large surplus has been carried along at large expense and heavy loss to holders. European markets, having been supplied with wheat from India and elsewhere, are not in condition to demand as much wheat from this country as they did in former years. Thus we have to enter upon the labor of a new crop year with the prospect that the pressure of an enormous surplus carried over will prevent farmers from getting a fair return. And meanwhile consumers abroad have been educated to rely on other sources for cheaper wheat than we can send them.

Fresh over the fence.—"S'pose you an' got all de news dis mornin', brer Pewter?" "Brer Pewter. Yeas; pretty much all. Dey is bavin' great times down in Africa. I dun know de English folks wants to hab a Chinese named Gurdon made president of a town dar called Khatoat and de democrats being strictly opposed to de Chinese wants a false prophet called El Mahdi, so de French is stepped in and dey is habing some pretty severe fightin' in dat locality."—Life.

Celebrated Liver Pills

In offering to the public Dr. C. McLane's Celebrated Liver Pills as a remedy for Liver and Bilious Complaints, we presume no apology will be needed. The great prevalence of Liver Complaint and Bilious Diseases of all kinds throughout the United States, and particularly in the West and South, where in the majority of cases, the patient is not within the reach of a regular physician, requires that some remedy should be provided that would not in the least impair the constitution, and yet be safe and effectual. That such is the character of Dr. C. McLane's Liver Pills, there can be no doubt. The great success which has invariably attended their use, will, we think, be sufficient to convince the most incredulous. It has been our sincere wish that these Pills should be fairly tested and stand or fall by the effects produced. That they have been so tested and that the result has been in every respect favorable, we call tens of thousands to witness who have experienced their beneficial effects.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS are not held forth or recommended, (like most of the popular medicines of the day), as universal cure-alls, but simply as a specific for Liver Complaints, and those symptoms connected with a deranged state of that organ.

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 12 1884

FASHION IN RELIGION.

Religion is more a matter of fashion in this country than the churches are willing to acknowledge. In many places the churches are, to a great degree, the centers of social life, and the door of society is entered through the portals of the church. This is so much the case in the city of Washington that the example of a president determines for many people the question which church they will attend, or whether they will attend any, or not. As soon as General Garfield was elected president, there was a "grand rush" of government clerks and society people to attend a previously obscure church in that city, simply because it had been ascertained that he went to that church. The little building was at once overcrowded, and the society began to make plans for building a larger edifice. But the death of General Garfield eclipsed the popularity of this Campbellite church, and it was not necessary to build a new edifice. "The king is dead; long live the king." President Arthur, though the son of a Baptist minister, is an Episcopalian, and the church which he attends now draws the crowds. It was so under Grant and Hayes, both of whom attended Methodist churches, though not the same church. For twelve years, during their residence in Washington, Methodism was the popular religion. Mrs. Hayes, it should be said to her credit, refused to attend the Metropolitan church, where so much un-American flunkeyism to the Grants had been shown, and chose a more obscure church of her denomination. There is almost as much servility of imitation in this respect at Washington as there is in London, where the example of the court is followed in all things. We are not sure, however, that there is much more of it now than there was in the early history of the government. The disastrous influence of President Jefferson's example upon religion in this country is well known, though other circumstances conspired at that time to affect religious opinions. The spread of infidel sentiments following the French revolution was felt in New England and other parts of the United States. In the life of Bishop Clagett, the first bishop of the Episcopal church of Maryland, and the first bishop consecrated in the United States, it is recorded as a remarkable fact, showing the spread of infidelity, that the forty clergymen belonging to the Maryland diocese at the time of his election in 1792, had dwindled down before his death to thirty.

But the example of President Jefferson shows that the church which a president attends and the creed which he professes are of little importance so far as the administration of the government is concerned. Bishop Clagett was chosen chaplain of the United States senate when the seat of government was removed to Washington in the year 1800, and the following year he wrote to a friend from Washington that Mr. Jefferson "has very constantly attended prayers every morning, and a course of sermons which I have delivered on Sundays in the capitol, on the 'Truth of the Christian System.'" Before Jefferson died he requested to have inscribed on his tombstone that he was the author of a bill to secure religious liberty. He proved to be a model president notwithstanding his religious opinions. He required the most exact and scrupulous honesty and fidelity in all government affairs, from the cabinet down to the most obscure country postmaster. While religion is of infinite importance in view of man's relations in the world to come, morality or integrity is all that the people can justly demand of their public servants in this world. The church which they attend and the religion which they profess are private matters with which the people have no right to interfere. The doctrine which Webster laid down in his argument in the Girard will case, that the Christian religion is a part of the common law of this country, will not, in the opinion of Rev. Dr. Woolsey, ex-president of Yale college, stand the test of sound opinion. It is only in a very general sense that the nation can be said to be a Christian nation. It is very desirable, of course, that our presidents should be Christian men and attend church. The tributes that have been paid to the character of General Garfield show how much consequence is attached to the belief that he was a genuine Christian. But it is humiliating to a true American to observe the tendency which so widely prevails, to pay an un-American homage to our presidents by making them the leaders of fashion at Washington and elsewhere throughout the country.

MUCH MONEY SPENT, YET NO NAVY

The improvement of the American navy bids fair to become an issue in our national politics. The president has urged appropriations for the completion and refitting of the monitors and the construction of additional steel cruisers in a special message to congress. In addition to this late developments reveal the fact that Hon. George M. Robeson entertains hopes that the political combinations of the future will again place him at the head of the navy department, where he can resume the work of alleged naval reconstruction which he carried on under Grant's administration.

The abstract proposition to provide the country with a navy which shall be commensurate with its wealth must be endorsed. The United States government can well afford to support a navy sufficient to protect its ports if it should become involved in foreign war. Our fortunate geographical position requires a small army for purposes of self defense, but indicates that a naval warfare would be our true method of self-defense. Yet it is the discreditable fact that not only such second-rate naval powers as Spain and Italy, but even little Chili, could destroy our navy and burn almost every sea coast city in the country. We ought to have a navy, but the vital question is whether the policy proposed by the advocates of naval expenditures will give it to us.

The men who urge appropriations for the navy should be able to show by their plans and their record that the money will accomplish the proposed purpose. That is just what they fail to do. The president proposes that money shall be appropriated to complete the unfinished monitors which are to carry seven-inch armor, while the new artillery of Europe has demonstrated its ability to pierce armor three times as heavy. He urges the construction of additional cruisers of a class which high authority has declared to be fitted with engines which will not work, and built on a model which will afford neither speed nor impregnability. Add to this the record of Robeson in the matter of naval contracts, and it becomes tolerably evident that the present plans for building ships of war hold out little promise of benefit to any one except the enemies of the United States and the naval contractors.

The nation will be ready to spend its funds liberally for a navy when it has some guarantee that the expenditures will secure a first-class one. But it has had too much experience in furnishing money to be used for the benefit of the contractors, without getting any navy worth the name in return, to be induced to keep up that policy.

The Connecticut legislature was recently asked to pass two bills, one of which proposed to allow women to vote on all questions pertaining to the sale of liquor, and the other to give them the right to vote in school district meetings and to hold office in school boards. The house rejected the first proposition by a large majority, while the school suffrage bill came within a dozen votes of passing.

One of the "practical" ideas of reasoning which permeates the democratic mind is illustrated by the example of the democratic city of New York, where the "necessities" of the party have absorbed millions upon millions of the money contributed by the overburdened and swindled taxpayers.

THE SOUTH'S MISTAKE.

The Danville and Copiah investigations, and the long debate in the senate on the bill granting federal aid to education have made very apparent the colossal mistake which the south continues to make in its treatment of the negroes. The initial mistake was slavery. This intelligent southern people now almost universally admit. They would not restore slavery if they could. And yet they adhere to a policy which is the outgrowth of that mistaken philosophy relative to the capabilities of the negroes for education, self-support and citizenship, which prevailed before the war. Every tenet of that philosophy has been overthrow by less than twenty-five years' experience. Still there is a practical denial of the manhood of the negro. To the average southerner the negro is a "nigger." He is despised; he is an outcast; he is contemptible; he can only be seen in the "kitchen;" he belongs to a race hopelessly inferior; his color is a badge of infamy; his presence in the community is only tolerable as a remediless evil; association with him is contaminative; his treatment must be such as will make the assertion of his manhood an impertinence and an offense. The kindness towards negroes of which southerners eloquently boast is the kindness men feel toward lower animals; it may be humane, but not human; sentimental, but not respectful. It looks for servility and dependence, and regards the highest qualities that the negro may exhibit very much as it looks upon fleetness in the race horse, strength in the ox, and fidelity in the dog. The recognition of manhood, with all its concomitants of respect, reverence, admiration, is wanting. This mistake is well-nigh universal in the south, and is a fatal mistake. This is aggravated by the attempt to repress every impulse of budding manhood. The white man's contempt is withering in its effects upon the whole colored race. Whatever progress is discernible among the negroes of the south is due to self-respect and consciousness of worth born of a practical recognition of the inherent dignity of his manhood by the government and its officials and by northern philanthropists who, despising the contempt and social ostracism heaped upon them by the race-proud whites of the south, have attempted to reach and influence the colored man by the same means, motives and methods which are recognized as necessary in dealing with white men. So far as the south succeeds in its policy, its mistake is criminal; so far as it refuses to take part in lifting a race to a nobler level, its mistake is a foolish one.

With such contemptuous regard for the negroes it would not be expected that the ballot would be sacred. One of the witnesses at the Danville investigation said the negroes were free to vote, "if they voted with him." This is the only freedom the south willingly confers. It is a farce. Democracy is a delusion. Their government is only a cloak for tyranny. A dry rot has seized upon the very vitals of the republic. The absolute and irretrievable failure of our whole theory of government is thus loudly proclaimed. Despotism is invited, anarchy is invoked. No words can fitly paint the heinousness of the crime against the liberty of those who, while professing to be the friends of freedom go through the mockery of balloting, and then resort to violence to defeat the ballot. The evil of this great wrong will not stop with the south; it will not injure one party alone; the colored man will not be the only sufferer, it will spread everywhere and work disaster, disease and death wherever it goes. It is, perhaps, too much to expect that the south will see, acknowledge and abandon the evil policy of repression, and at once accord to the negro his rightful places and seek by all possible means to fit him for his new responsibilities. Still it is cause for rejoicing that through the whole south is a growing body of people who recognize that the republic must rest upon justice and truth, and who are willing to recognize the true manhood of the negro and grant to him all the rights and privileges involved in that recognition. It is only by the elevation of the negro that the south can rise. A large multitude of ignorant, degraded people living in close fellowship with a superior race will drag them down toward their own level. The corrupting influence of the negro in the past is indisputable. The southern people are committing that fearful sin of calling their colored brother "thou fool," which will bring upon them, if persisted in, still more dreadful judgments.

Senator Dawes of Massachusetts has been an earnest advocate of civil service reform, but at the same time he believes in keeping his friends' toes warm. He lately insisted upon having a certain man with whose grandfather he had studied law placed on the capitol police force, which the sergeant-at-arms finally agreed to, but in order to give him a place he had to discharge another man who, it turned out, was also a protege of the Massachusetts senator. Mr. Dawes insisted that he should be taken back, but the sergeant-at-arms refused, on the ground that he could not appoint more than one man from any state on that force. Then Senator Dawes tried to have the senate pass a vote of censure upon the sergeant-at-arms, and this official having now discharged four pages for reasons which he considered sufficient, Mr. Dawes has organized a movement to make him take the boys back. The sergeant-at-arms declares that if he is to be held responsible for the efficient discharge of his duties he must be permitted to select some at least of his subordinates, and that rather than submit to further dictation he will "step down and out."

Some recently compiled statistics show that the total consumption of sugar in this country is over 800,000 tons annually, of which only about 100,000 is raised here and the balance is imported, or about one pound in ten is produced in this country. Tariff is about 100 per cent., so that for every dollar a consumer pays for sugar, fifty cents goes to the government; in other words, we pay just twice as much for sugar as we should if there was no tariff. Nearly $50,000,000 are paid by the consumers annually as a tariff. The value of all the sugar raised in this country is less than $10,000,000, and the real estate valuation of Louisiana is but little in excess of the annual tax paid by the consumers of sugar. The case is well stated when it is said that for the benefit of a few sugar planters the people of this country pay enough to buy the whole state of Louisiana every year, and get nothing for their money. This is one of the most striking cases on record of the tail wagging the dog, and the question is, how much longer will the dog stand it?

Several western legislatures have passed joint resolutions, asking congress to pass a law giving every honorably discharged soldier or sailor of the late war a patent for 160 acres of land without requiring him to settle thereon; also for a law allowing all surviving soldiers of the late war, who were honorably discharged, a uniform pension of $8 a month during life; also for the passage of the Robinson bill, granting pensions to all soldiers, sailors and marines who were confined in rebel prisons, and $2 a day for each day they were so confined. Petitions asking the same legislation are received by the score every day from the Grand Army posts and individuals. No government ever treated its soldiers as well as ours have been treated. They were well paid during their service and have been liberally pensioned since their discharge. They can not now afford to have the impression prevail that they have become mercenary since the war. These demands for additional pensions will create such an impression.

The Mississippi river engulfs annually an incalculable extent of territory, as it has been the cause of an enormous waste of public money. It is, says the Atlanta Constitution, a mystery which no one has so far solved. All the plans for preventing overflows have proved useless, the levees will not restrain the water, and congress should no longer pour money into the swamps. This view is confirmed by the news that one of the most important levees on the river, constructed by the national government last year, some fifty miles above Vicksburg, has been carried away. All the money that has been contributed by the public treasury for levees has been absolutely thrown away. In the light of these facts it will be strange if congress should appropriate any more money for levee construction. When it comes to bestowing food and raiment on the sick and suffering, there will be a ready acquiescence in any reasonable relief. And even here there is a lesson to be learned. It should be understood that rational care, in view of the facts well known, should be taken by those who plant themselves on the banks of the great rivers.

Chalmers of Mississippi, the converted bulldozer, has addressed an able letter to the chairman of the executive committee of the independent party in that state, in which he advises coalition of the independents and republicans in favor of free elections, free schools and protection to American industries. It is possible that the Yazoo-Copiah plan of bulldozing and intimidation may roast, and that Mississippi may yet be controlled in the future by the voice of the majority. But it is not likely to come soon.

ONLY RELIABLE ROUTE

TO THE

CŒUR D' ALENE MINES

IS VIA

RATHDRUM, I. T., ON THE N. P. R. R

THIS ROUTE OFFERS SUPERIOR ADVANTAGES to miners, shippers and tourists, as persons so desiring can go to the mines without camping out, via stage to Cœur d'Alene Lake (10 miles); thence by steamer to a point within eight miles of the mines; thence again by stage to Eagle City—making the whole distance from Rathdrum to Eagle City in less than 12 hours.

And persons who wish to use their own animals can do so via the Mullan Road to the Mission, Jackson Prairie or Evolution, where good wagon roads are being made to Eagle City, and where pack trains are traveling daily.

Large stocks of groceries, dry goods and miners' supplies always on hand, and can be purchased at bed rock prices. Good accommodations for man and beast can be had at Rathdrum at moderate prices.

Persons desiring to leave their baggage, merchandise, etc., etc., at the nearest point, while looking up a location in the mines, will find a commodious warehouse at Rathdrum, where their goods will be cared for and forwarded to them when desired, at the lowest current rates. 5alm1 3p

TESTIMONY OF A DEAF MUTE.—Yesterday in the state circuit court, before a jury, Fred Strave, a burly laborer who lived in Albina, was tried upon an indictment charging him with an outrageous assault upon a woman 35 years old—a deaf mute. The woman herself was the principal witness against the man and told her story plainly to the jury, through the instrumentality of Rev. P. S. Knight, superintendent of the deaf and dumb school at Salem. The defense endeavored to throw discredit upon the woman's ability to testify, and told Mr. Knight to ask if she understood the nature of an oath. She replied in the sign language plainly enough to the interpreter, if such he may be called—that she knew she couldn't go to heaven unless she told the truth. "Ask her what she knows about heaven," said the attorney for the prisoner. "Stop a minute," said Judge Smith, "I don't know much about heaven myself, and I suppose she knows as much about it as either you or I. Proceed with the testimony of the witness." The trial occupied the whole afternoon, and will be finished to-day.

TWO PHILOSOPHERS.—While Van B. DeLashmutt and Hon. R. Williams were driving home from the rifle sale yesterday, leading a horse behind their buggy, the wheels on one side of the vehicle went into a deep rut in the road and it inclined to a dangerous angle. Said Mr. Williams to Mr. DeLashmutt: "I believe we are going to tip over." Said Mr. DeLashmutt to Mr. Williams: "Things seem to incline to that conclusion." The buggy being of the same opinion just then went over, falling upon the two philosophers. Van seeing that the horse was determined to run let him go, and he went at racing speed for about fifty yards, when he took a tumble and laid down to rest. The gentlemen gathered themselves up and then collected the buggy and horses, and the whole outfit at last reached the city just a little the worse for wear.

HE WAS AFRAID TO APPEAR.—Then. Killdoff was called in the police court yesterday to answer to a charge of assaulting his wife. When arrested the previous evening he deposited $50 as bail for his appearance. He concluded not to appear and forfeited the coin. Mrs. Killdoff, who had come into court to prosecute her husband, was much disgusted with the turn affairs had taken. She is a stout woman and had a healthy baby, and a big scar on the bridge of her nose. When it dawned upon her that Killdoff had escaped punishment at the sacrifice of $50, she felt inclined to serve out Judge Moreland and evinced a freshness with her tongue which tended to convince those present that her husband had not alone been to blame for the trouble between them.

LECTURE LAST EVENING.—A lecture was delivered last evening in Y. M. C. A. hall by Dr. C. C. Strong, on the "Interdependence of the Mental and Physical Systems." The large audience of young men present listened with great attention to the concise and forcible statements of the lecturer. Truths of the highest importance were plainly and squarely dealt with, and many practical suggestions given. At the close a vote of thanks was, on motion of Rev. E. T. Lee, unanimously voted Dr. Strong. The next lecture in the medical course will be by Dr. E. C. Brown, on the "Eye and Ear," Friday, April 25th.

PROSPECTS OF WOOL GROWERS.—A gentleman connected with the wool interest, who has just returned from a trip through eastern Oregon, reports prospects cheering for wool growers. The lambing season is well over, and the increase of flocks will average 100 per cent., the splendid weather having reduced the loss to a minimum. Shearing will commence at once, and as the sheep have been kept in good condition all winter the clip will be unusually heavy. One lot of wool of this season's clip has been received here already and before long the docks will be lined with sacks of it.

DIED.—Mrs. G. T. Ainsley, of Boston, Massachusetts, the mother of Bessie Louise King, the pleasing singer, died in this city yesterday, after an illness of only four days. Mrs. Ainsley had been widowed from her second husband about three years, during which time her daughter, Miss King, has been her sole support. Upon her recent visit to the east Miss King decided to bring her mother to this country and did so. Unfortunately Mrs. Ainsley was taken sick on the train just before arriving here, from which she did not recover.

WASHINGTON GEOGRAPHICALLY DESCRIBED.—Frankness and truthfulness of speech are to be commended, but one can have too much of a good thing. This appears to have been the case with a "gentleman just returned from Washington territory," who, when asked by a reporter of the San Francisco Wasp how he liked that country, replied: "Well, sir, every bunch of willows is a mighty forest, every frog-pond a sylvan lake, every waterfall a second Minnehaha, every ridge of rocks a gold mine, every town a county seat and every man a liar."

WHAT SICKENED THEM.—Residents of the cyclone infected states now dig storm pits, into which they retire with their families when "a black cloud hovers o'er the scene." A fellow in Georgia retreated to his hole the other night. He did not pull it in after him, but at the trap door, and the rain descended and the floods came and swelled the trap door, so that he was not able to open it in the morning. A neighbor coming by heard the rumpus, picked up the pit and released the "gopher grabbers," who at once sold out and will come to Oregon.

SOME ONE BLUNDERED.—Advertised proposals to build a steam launch to be used as a tender to the city dredger have been withdrawn for the present by order of the chairman of the dredger committee, Councilman Gerdes. It is understood from one of the contractors that they were not able to make intelligent bids, there being no plans or specifications prepared. Probably when this is done proposals will be readvertised.

BATTLE OF THE WAITERS.—French Ryan and Gilbert Prince, employes in the steward's department on board the steamer Columbia, became involved in a quarrel while coming up the river. The result was that both were arrested yesterday on charges of assault and battery, and will have to appear before Justice Bushwiler to answer. The amount of crockery and glassware destroyed by them has not been ascertained.

OVERLAND PASSENGERS.—The following persons passed Heron's yesterday, to arrive in Portland this afternoon: H. Hansen, J. Turner, H. C. Abbott, F. Adastina, G. Mavrighrade, G. Brill, Mrs. A. F. Kindhore, Miss E. Bartlett. THE OREGONIAN has made arrangements to secure overland passenger lists daily.

BRIEF MENTION.

Skating at the pavilion this afternoon and evening, with music. Last day of the season.

The literary entertainment to be held at Calvary church this evening is for the benefit of the church.

For a few weeks Messrs E. J. & W. H. Partridge, photographers, will be located at Vancouver, near the postoffice.

There will be a public reception and grand ball at Vancouver next Wednesday evening, in honor of the territorial grand encampment of the G. A. R. A large party will go over from this city.

A. J. Chapman, scout and interpreter of the department of the Columbia, has been ordered to proceed from Vancouver to Fort Walla Walla, reporting to the commanding officer of that post for special duty.

The choir at the Easter services at the First Congregational church to-morrow will consist of Mrs. R. W. Grover and Miss May Prentice, sopranos; Mrs. G. E. Sturtevant, alto; S. Bullock, tenor; H. Ramsdell, bass and E. T. Mayo, organist and director.

The cap social given by the ladies of the A. M. E. church, to raise funds to pay the street assessment on church property, netted the sum of $55. The trustees and members of the church wish to return thanks to the ladies for the interest taken in the matter.

PERSONAL.

Ex-Senator H. W. Corbett and wife, accompanied by Miss May Failing, arrived home from the east by the Pacific express last evening.

Wm. De Dell, general agent of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern railroad, is in the city.

TAKE ADVICE.

Don't Buy until you See Mozart's.

It really pays one to look around, for the difference in the prices of precisely the same articles is amazing. The same sun hat Mozart's are selling for 50 cents will cost you $1 elsewhere. Look at the fine Milans for $1 25, in fashionable shades! Why, you would pay $2 00 for that same hat anywhere else. Visit Mozart's, 70 Morrison street, and see if we are not telling the truth when we say Mozart's is the best place in Portland to buy fine and desirable goods cheap. Same way with their ready made dresses and dolmans, good fabric and latest design in make up. It's no use talking, Mozart's is way ahead this year for popular goods and popular prices, and the place has well earned the title of "THE POPULAR STORE" and most of our readers know that means MOZART'S CLOAK AND SUIT HOUSE, 70 MORRISON STREET.

Good Authority.

When Wiberg & Hollabaugh say they are selling fine shoes at from 25c to $1 per pair less than others sell the same quality for, you can believe it.

Personal.

Uncle Bloch has gone to Umatilla for his health. He will be gone about two weeks.

ANOTHER LIBEL SUIT.

Dick Gerdes also Demands $5000 from the "Staats Zeitung."

HE ALLEGES DEFAMATION OF CHARACTER.

Some Interesting Things which the German Editor Said of the City Councilman, Now Translated into English.

Following in the wake of his henchman, Hermann Schneider, Councilman Dick Gerdes yesterday also brought suit against Dr. Tobmann, editor of the Staats Zeitung, for $5000 damages for alleged defamation of character. The articles which it is alleged are false and libelous, have been translated into English and made part of the plaintiff's complaint, which has been filed in the state circuit court, and reads as follows:

Feb. 22, 1884. Picture Gallery I. Gerdes, the great hero—or how to the $100,000.—Thus endeth the first article.

Everybody whose sound five senses are not lost by [illegible], or [illegible] from distilled liquors, must suppose that if a person gives security for twenty times $5000, or $100,000 altogether, he must have property worth [illegible]. Now if Gerdes sets himself in this [illegible] to the council of which he is a member, and [illegible] his statements, as must be done in every case of giving security, by an oath, then he should also pay taxes on this property. This is, however, not the case. Gerdes as a private citizen has been assessed $1750, viz., $400 on town lot, $550 improvements, $200 on implements and merchandise, and $200 household goods, and as a liquor dealer in company with Botefuhr, with $1200. Both together have merchandise for $2500, household $70, wagon and horse $50, debts $630, balance $1060, of which Gerdes' half is $1500. That is a great difference between $100,000. It is less than $1000. Either the former or the latter statement is an untruth, called [illegible], swindle. If, however, Gerdes maintains that they are so loose in granting licenses and accepting bail that the dishonorable mayor hardly looks at the security and his boy clerk not at all, if they can only grant many licenses and get money, and that this is all, then the whole affair is a dissimulation, consequently a swindle again, for which he, Gerdes himself, as a paid member of the city government, is responsible for. If Gerdes really has so much property it proves the large profit which there is in selling liquor, and justifies the high amount of taxes that must be paid for it, and this leads us to our real subject. The first mover, at least the defender of the high license law, is no other person but Gerdes. He and his [illegible] do not want to admit it as true, but it is so nevertheless. Gerdes was a poor, starving wretch because he could not get along with the [illegible] he got from [illegible] in the country, set up in business as beer [illegible] by the compassion and mercy of an over-liberal beer brewer of this place.

Feb. 29, 1884—Gerdes, the Great Hero!

Unscrupulous persons only treat everything as a trifle, but the righteous are conscientious and strict, and strict to themselves. If Gerdes, as it has been shown, possesses only $2050, he had no right to give security for a single saloon to the amount of $5000, much less for twenty saloons amounting to $100,000. In giving security of any kind every person has to swear that he owns at least as much property as the amount of security which he gives. So much the less was Gerdes entitled to give security, not only for one, to say nothing about twenty. Therefore he committed perjury, not once but twenty times, or the formulary of an oath subscribed by him is a farce. Gerdes has been put in office by the confidence of the people, and is paid for the purpose of seeing to the laws. Now, if this Councilman Gerdes himself violates the law, permitting the same Gerdes, a liquor dealer, to give an illegal security and swear to a false statement twenty times, such a disloyal official deserves not only a public censure, but also a suitable punishment. The citizens to whom we belong, do not pay taxes for nothing in order to feed unscrupulous officials and to give them the opportunity to make ill use of their official positions by violating the laws to enrich themselves. * * * *

Besides the Augean stable in our neglected council chamber, another such one appears to exist in our police department. The whole police department appears to be a real den of thieves, to which not only the policemen, hussies and lewd people, but also the notorious Gerdes have access and intercourse in it.

March 7, 1884. Picture Gallery, Gerdes, the Great Hero, IV:

Some pretend to know that our great hero has not succeeded enough yet by selling whisky and buying contributions [illegible], for which he gave bond by an illegal manipulation in collusion with the worthless scoundrel the mayor, and therefore looks out for the biggest of all the "flesh pots of Egypt" in Oregon, the fattening office of sheriff in Portland. Just think of the little greasy Gerdes, with his [illegible] feet on the scaffold, opposite a giant as [illegible], for the purpose of adjusting the noose [illegible] and pushing him into eternity [illegible]. He would have to use a ladder to do it. This picture is enchantingly fine. Such a tale has never before been seen. Gerdes would really be a fine hangman. All the thieves would run away from him, even on the scaffold, and he as [illegible] runner, could not catch them. My dear Gerdes, there's no go; as much as you may pour whisky after it you will not get it, [illegible] republican [illegible]. The documents must have patience until the republicans are tired out of the saddle entirely. In no case can Gerdes depend on the votes of the Germans. They are too honest and honest minded to be deceived any longer by his dissimulation, and to build a Jacob's ladder for a person who disgraces the Germans so outrageously by his infamous tactics in the council, and who has in all his doings no other object in view but to satisfy his self-interest, and enrich himself by employing unlawful means. That don't suit, and is incompatible with the office of a paid official appointed by a confiding people, after having abused and forfeited this confidence so gratuitously. Become therefore not."

E. [illegible] Another Picture.—Communicated by a correspondent known to us to be reliable.—Another contribution to the Gerdes' glorification.

Gerdes, having been blackballed twice in a respectable association, and the better members of the association having been deceived by a deceptive advertisement of a meeting by his servile followers and consorts, was initiated in said meeting, according to the rules, but nevertheless by swindling. It is the same Gerdes who thrusted himself twice into the city council by the most rejectable means, and sets himself up as a representative of the Germans, to their disgrace, who, with his train and followers, forces on the city the worst administration and rule it ever had.

Feb. 21, 1884. To Gerdes himself it was quite unimportant how many or how few saloon keepers existed, and how much or how little they had to pay. For he had meanwhile withdrawn from the small business, sold his saloon and commenced a wholesale liquor business, for there is more in it, and therefore established a regular system of robbery, and for this, his own, and no other purpose, he pressed himself into the city council and caught hold of all the people in the street to give him their votes. It is even rumored that he bought votes, or had them bought. The majority of the saloon keepers did not find themselves in a dilemma so much by the high taxes as by the reprisals in giving security. According to the letter of the ordinance nobody should be accepted as bondsman who is in any way connected with the manufacture or distribution of beer or liquor. Nevertheless Gerdes, Chapman's faithful servant, knew how to accomplish it that the latter shut one eye and admitted the councilman and wholesale liquor dealer, Gerdes, as bail in twenty cases. "Everything has its reason, who can help it," except Gerdes himself. Of course he goes only security for all saloon keepers who buy their whisky from him.

Promising opens the eyes of expectation; we promise that if any housekeeper will use Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder for lightening and raising their biscuits, cakes and breads, that they will find that no other article of its kind will produce such nice results. There is no powder stronger; none purer; none so healthful. Test it in the oven.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

The Daily Oregonian.

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 12, 1884.

TRADE AND COMMERCE.

FRIDAY, April 11.

Our stock and Atlantic market reports to-day are cut off by the holiday. On this coast the day is not generally observed, although less is doing.

Rain is reported this morning from Riparia, Dayton, Walla Walla, Wallula and Pendleton, with cloudy weather this side. At Meacham's snow was falling.

Overland receipts include 310 cs coal oil.

PRODUCE RECEIPTS.—Past 24 hours: 2457 ctls wheat, 912 bbls flour, 631 ctls oats, 120 ctls millstuff, 35 lbs hides, 330 cs eggs, 72 bxs fruit, 5 bxs butter, 63 bls hay; also 6038 ctls wheat, 930 bbls flour, 3015 lbs hides from the eastern section.

All produce lines are quiet, showing no change in values. Eggs are in such large stock as to almost preclude any advance. Choice fresh are held above 18 cents in a few instances.

The aggregate supply of wheat in sight in the United States exclusive of California and Oregon and Canada was 29,574,400 bushels, and of corn 17,561,160 bushels; against on the preceding weekly exhibit, an aggregate of 30,226,711 bushels wheat, and 16,080,700 bushels corn; and an aggregate of 32,-836,000 bushels wheat, and 16,533,450 bushels corn at the corresponding date the preceding year.

Mail advices from England report the wheat crop at the close of February as in excellent condition, but too forward for the season. If dry and sunny weather prevails during the spring, the result will be one of the finest wheat crops on record; but without this the crop must be a partial failure, owing to the too rapid growth during the mild weather last month. On the continent the weather has been mild, and crops in France and Holland have been forced too rapidly, and will need very favorable weather to escape injury, but with that the harvest will be immense. In Spain, Germany, and Southern Russia the prospects are favorable. Good reports come also from Algeria and India, with the exception of Bengal.

Washington advices relative to the foreign trade of the United States make the excess of the value of exports over imports of merchandise in February $6,601,051 and for January and February $20,283,127 and, since July 1, 1883, $88,293,894 and for the twelve months, $100,419,136. The total values of the imports of merchandise during the 12 months ended February 29, 1884, were $682,776,609, and during the 12 months ended February 28, 1883, $750,832,073, a decrease of $67,555,-464. The total values of the exports of merchandise during the 12 months ended February 29, 1884, were $783,193,743 and during the 12 months ended February 28, 1883, $793,489,854, showing a decrease of $10,-494,109.

SHIPPING NOTES.

The Br ship British General, from S F, took 11,625 ctls Oregon wheat.

The Br bark Oberon, hence Dec. 15, with 36,054 ctls wheat by Balfour, Guthrie & Co., has arrived out in a run of 116 days.

The Br new bark Isis arrived at Astoria to-day, 125 days from Liverpool, with general cargo to Meyer, Wilson & Co.

J. H. Smith, one of the founders of the Maritime Register, died at Brooklyn March 27. He came to this country from England when a boy and afterward held different positions as marine reporter, superintendent of the Merchants' Exchange rooms, New York, and superintendent of the Marine Association.

The Guion line steamer Oregon reached New York March 24 from Liverpool. Her time from Queenstown to Sandy Hook anchorage was 7 days, 15 hours, 12 minutes. Heavy westerly gales and winter weather were encountered. Her daily runs were 337, 312, 420, 371, 373, 374, 396 miles.

The new iron steamship San Pablo, which left New York 8:30 A. M., March 13, for Shanghai and Yokohama, ran to Port Said, Egypt, in 17 days, 17 hours, the quickest run on record. She carried 2900 tons of a miscellaneous cargo and 800 tons of coal, on a draught of 25 feet of water. Her average speed was 12½ knots an hour.

THE NEW SOUTH.

The New Departure, Showing Spindles to be Stronger than Politics.

The careful statistician of the Baltimore Manufacturers' Record shows that at the beginning of the present year there were in the southern states 1,2[illegible] 472 spindles and 24,873 looms, an increase of 562,430 spindles and 9561 looms in three and one-half years. Georgia is the largest cotton manufacturing state in the south, the Carolinas coming next, while even Florida shows substantial progress. The value of the products of the southern mills was about $21,-000,000 in 1881; it had risen to $40,000,000 last year. The progress in cotton manufacturing alone during the three years past in the south has led to the expenditure of $25,000,000, chiefly in the north, for cotton mill machinery. These few facts suggest a rapid increase of the population of mill operatives and machinists, the growth of machine shops for the making of machinery, a steady growth of the manufacturing population.

Then the development of the coal and iron areas of Alabama presents another factor of population of diversity. In Alabama alone were mined last year over 1,000,000 tons of coal, and the supply of iron is, like the coal, apparently inexhaustible. Tennessee, Kentucky and other southern states have an immense storage of coal and iron in propinquity. All these coal, iron and cotton areas will, within twenty years, be under transformation from purely agricultural regions to beehives of manufacturing industry. Old conditions must pass away; the thunder of the steam hammer and the roar of the furnace and the whirl of the revolving machinery of cotton mills are voices more potent than those of self-seeking politicians to break a "solid" south, dissipate prejudices and equalize political force.

New York Mail and Express, (rep.): How can the republican convention at Chicago fail to recognize the ability, sagacity, uprightness, honesty, purity and success of the Arthur administration in the platform? And how can any such recognition fail to be the most powerful plea for the practical recognition as a reward of a nomination?

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

Castoria promotes Digestion, and overcomes Flatulency, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhœa, and Feverishness. It insures health and natural sleep, without morphine.

"Castoria is so well adapted to Children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 82 Portland Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

What gives our Children rosy cheeks,
What cures their fevers, makes them sleep;
'Tis Castoria.
When babies fret and cry by turns,
What cures their colic, kills their worms,
But Castoria.
What quickly cures Constipation,
Sour Stomach, Colds, Indigestion,
But Castoria.
Farewell then to Morphine Syrups,
Castor Oil and Paregoric, and Hail Castoria!

CENTAUR LINIMENT—an absolute cure for Rheumatism, Sprains, Burns, Galls, &c. The most Powerful and Penetrating Pain-relieving and Healing Remedy known to man.

TUTT'S PILLS

TORPID BOWELS, DISORDERED LIVER, and MALARIA.

From these sources arise three-fourths of the diseases of the human race. These symptoms indicate their existence: Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Sick Headache, fullness after eating, aversion to exertion of body or mind, Eructation of food, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, A feeling of having neglected some duty, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, highly colored Urine, CONSTIPATION, and demand the use of a remedy that acts directly on the Liver. As a Liver medicine TUTT'S PILLS have no equal. Their action on the Kidneys and Skin is also prompt; removing all impurities through these three "scavengers of the system," producing appetite, sound digestion, regular stools, a clear skin and a vigorous body. TUTT'S PILLS cause no nausea or griping nor interfere with daily work and are a perfect

ANTIDOTE TO MALARIA.

Sold everywhere, 25c. Office 44 Murray St., N. Y.

TUTT'S MANUAL OF USEFUL RECEIPTS FREE.

Durham is Historic. It was neutral ground during the armistice between Sherman and Johnston. Soldiers of both armies filled their pouches with the tobacco stored there, and after the surrender, marched home. Then orders came from East, West, North and South, for "more of that elegant tobacco." Then, ten years ago, the manufacture was increased to meet the demand. Now its employés number over ... the Durham Bull is the trade mark of this, the best tobacco in the world. The Durham Bull Durham Smoking Tobacco has the largest sale of any smoking tobacco in the world. Why? Simply because it is the best. All dealers have it. Trade-mark of the Bull.

LOOK OUT! DURHAM BULL

It has the Durham Bull trade-mark of Blackwell's Bull Durham Smoking Tobacco. The Lazarus as he was told he wouldn't have been cornered by the Bull.
